board the steamer State of Marine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of viallity. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow an thing, and if I did force a moral down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergy man, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, rempounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40c per gallon, the tast- disguised by thise or coriander seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, a long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of alcoholic stimulants of the worst kind the desire for liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a liquor bitters.

of Soldiers! We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will care nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the new papers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Discusses resulting from displaced in the displacement Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are spectfly removed. We have no healtation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, bn.,dreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarka-ble and well authenticated c re of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been Normal is their next term, commencing on the first Monday in December, 1863, for a license to sell "intoxicating liquors in a less quantity than a quart at a time," with the privilege of allowing the same to be drank on my premises, for one year. Messas, Joses & Evans: Well, gentlemen, your Boofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is wouched for by numbers of my covarades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous daties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for 22 days in the hospital. This was followed by great de-72 day in the hospital. This was followed by great de-bility, hightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White Bouse, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed
